The Show Format

Get ready for an action-packed show! The Force & Friction Pathfinder & Pioneers podcast format is all about capturing your origin story, what's worked, the challenges, the pains, the pivotal turning points and successes, also we will ask you to look into the crystal ball of the future with your predictions.

We know your time is valuable, so we've designed our show to be fast-paced and engaging, with each episode lasting around 30 minutes depending on the complexity of your origin story and experiences in GTM and RevOps, if you can allocate 45-60 minutes total on your calendar.

We've crafted the show to deliver an unforgettable experience through dynamic show segments, each is carefully designed to keep our listeners engaged and entertained, while also providing valuable insights and information on the latest trends and developments in the RevOps arena.

1: Show Opening & Guest Introduction

Show opener with application / organization intro and welcome to the show with social and web plug.

2: The Origin Story

What was the pivotal moment that led you to start [App Name], and how did you turn that initial spark into the innovative solution it is today?

3: Overcoming the Odds

Share a critical challenge or turning point your company faced, and what strategies or innovations helped you overcome it.

4: Mastering the GTM and or RevOps Approach

Share your GTM / Revenue Operations approach the highs and lows and what strategy is currently working for you right now.

5: Vision of the Future

With the rapid evolution of technology including Ai, where do you see your industry heading in the next few years, and how is [Your App Name] preparing to lead or adapt to these changes?

Your Contribution & Expertise

When you book on through the online form, we'll ask you to share your bios (you can take it from your LinkedIn or blog bio) and share your origin story in one sentence. (i.e. from $25 pw motor mechanic to serial entrepreneur and an IPO in 10 years). In the show itself we will chat around this to help our audience understand your journey (highs and lows).

- 1. Introduction: Here, we'll give you the opportunity to introduce your topic idea to our listeners. This is your chance to set the stage and get our audience excited about what's to come.
- 2. Transparency: Share your highs and lows, whats worked and whats not, what clicked to get your application / idea to its current stage. Include any pro tips for our listeners who many will be developing their own applications.
- 3. Conclusion: Finally, we'll wrap up the discussion by asking you to predict the future, and how you are adapting with Ai to face this with confidence. We'll give you the chance to share any final thoughts or recommendations with our audience, and provide a clear call-to-action for anyone who wants to learn more about the topic.

By breaking the discussion down into these three sections, we can ensure that our listeners get a well-rounded and comprehensive understanding of your journey, and receive key insights from people who have walked more than a mile in their shoes.

We're committed to providing a platform that allows our guests to share their expertise and insights in a structured, engaging, and effective way, and we're excited to have you join us on the show!

Tailoring Your Content Topic

When selecting any specialist GTM RevOps strategies, it's important to keep in mind our audience's unique demographics.

Consider the following:

As a guest contributor on the Force & Friction Pathfinders & Pioneers Podcast, it's important to tailor your content to our diverse audience. Our listeners can be broken down into four main categories, each with their unique interests and demands

1: Sectors

In addition to our diverse audience segments, we attract listeners from a wide range of markets. However, we specialize in serving organizations in the SaaS, Tech sectors primarily.

Our listeners in these sectors are often looking for specific insights and strategies that can help them navigate the unique challenges of these sectors.

- For SaaS companies, we understand the importance of application development, user retention and retention, and the critical role that GTM RevOps can play in driving growth and success. Our listeners in the SaaS sector are looking for innovative and practical strategies that can help them build sustainable revenue streams and scale their businesses
- In the Tech sector, we understand the fast-paced and competitive nature of the industry, and the need for companies to stay ahead of the curve with the latest technologies and trends. Our listeners in this sector are looking for insights on how to leverage RevOps to create efficiencies and streamline processes in order to keep pace with rapid innovation

By specializing in these sectors, we can provide a more tailored and focused approach to our content in the podcast, and ensure that our guest contributors are sharing insights that are directly relevant to the needs and interests of our listeners.

2: Founders and Start Up to Growth C Suites

From early stage founders, pre seed through to management teams raising funds.

This audience could be venture capital-backed firms or bootstrapped businesses looking to secure their first round of funding.

They have a thirst for ideas and tend to be more strategic in their demands for content but still crave the real life tactical quick wins.

To appeal to this audience, it's essential to focus on big-picture concepts and strategies that can help them achieve their long-term goals while satisfying some instant gratifications to leave the show with.

3. RevOps Professionals

This audience consists of corporate/enterprise professionals who are looking to learn more and committed to improving their personal development around the subject of RevOps.

4: Venture Capitalists / Portfolio Managers

These professionals are looking for the latest information around GTM RevOps and need data to cross-reference against their portfolios.

A smaller percentage of their portfolio may be doing great and ahead of forecast, while the majority may be stretching to achieve forecast or on track with a degree of variance which is acceptable, and others may be on the verge of failure.

To appeal to this audience, it's essential to provide strategic insights and statistics that underpin their confidence in suggesting GTM RevOps and the show to their portfolio.

Educational Format

We value your expertise and are excited to have you contribute to the Force & Friction Pathfinders & Pioneers Podcast. Our primary goal is to provide Pathfinders & Pioneers that will help them grow and succeed in the world of RevOps.

As such, we ask that your contribution be focused on your origin story with real life examples and not just sales promotions. However, we will provide promotional plugs to your website and promote any offers or book launches to allow listeners to learn more if they engage with your topic both in the interview and on the production podcast channels and blogs with backlinks.

We're committed to providing a platform that allows our guests to showcase their expertise and share their insights with our listeners.

We believe that your contribution will be a valuable addition to our show, and we're excited to work with you to create an engaging and informative discussion that our audience will love.

Thank you for your commitment to excellence in the field of GTM RevOps, and the rewarding world of being a pathfinder pioneer. We can't wait to hear what you have to share with our listeners!
